

Slavonic Serenade Duo Concert
At Ballroom, The Sukhothai Bangkok
Thursday, 29 April 2010, at 18.30 hrs.

Violin by Jonathon Glonek    Piano by Mischa Solovei

A celebration of the rich traditions of Czech music, drawing on a unique blend of gypsy rhythm with Eastern European melody and harmony.

Musicians Jonathon Glonek, violinist, and Mikhail Solovei, pianist, will present a program of rarely performed romantic works composed exclusively by the most famous Czech composers.

Artists' Narratives

Having been a guest lecturer in Violin Studies at the Chulalongkorn University of Thailand since 1998, Jonathon Glonek has become known to audiences both in Asia and Australia, where he first studied violin. In the course of his solo performances he has attracted strong critical acclaim for live performances across the range of his repertoire, from classical sonatas, the romantic virtuoso medium, and 20th century works. He is also one of the few violinists performing the entire 24 Caprices of Nicolo Paganini and works of Bach as solo recitals.

Dr. Mikhail Solovei was awarded a PhD in 1985 from the Gorky and Moscow Conservatoriums. He then went on to do solo concerts and performances in Poland, Russia, Ukraine and Belgium, while lecturing at master classes in universities. Dr. Solovei has given recitals in prestigious music halls in Melbourne, Brisbane, Malaysia, Bangkok and the USA. He is now a lecturer in piano at Australia's famous Monash University and Head of Piano of the Melba Conservatorium. His world-class CD album "Piano Recital" was produced with Masters Classic in Holland, 1998.

Ticket price is Baht 600 net including pre-performance cocktail reception.
Cocktail reception 18.30 hrs. / Performance 19.30 hrs.
